freshman Congressman and that, is an accomplishment.

Mr. Rogers reviewed his efforts, aims and objects as successor to his father and pointed out his sponsorship of a resolution by his father to require a record vote, as well as permission for re-introduction of bills by several Congressmen, as is done in the Senate.

As a proponent of flood control, Mr. Rogers obtained a membership on the Public Works Committee, which is a compliment to a youngster, as this is one of the big committees of Congress, and required the help of Sam Rayburn and Mr. Martin.

Mr. Rogers got high tribute to Representative F. M. E. Roberts for his work in Tallahassee on Flood Control appropriations for marshalling our US Senators and himself to testify before the Florida House Committee, and for his handling of the presentations.

The audience noted the poise and dignity the young Congressman has acquired through his prodigious public appearance and public speaking campaign since Congress adjourned.

"Write me," the Congressman said, "There's a job for any man in my position to know just how to vote on the many bills on which we must express an opinion. I need your views on these questions and I want them — so, write me and tell me just what you think on any proposed legislation."

Among those attending the meeting was the entire County Commission.

Garden Club Stages Xmas Dinner Party; Name Flower Show

As Christmas time draws near the various clubs and organizations of the community join in the holiday spirit with dinners and parties.

In a colorful setting in keeping with the rule of the year, the Belle Glade Garden Club held their annual Christmas dinner party last Thursday night at the Woman's Club.

Vases of poinsettias, silver and red arrangements and the traditional Christmas tree formed the setting for the two long tables at which the 28 members and a guest were seated. The tables were covered with white cloths, decorated with Christmas candles and individual tinted wrapped fruit cakes as favors complemented the decorations.

Serving on the committee for the turkey dinner were Mrs. Della Altman, Mrs. Bryant McLeander, Mrs. C. A. Bailey and Mrs. George Farnall.

A gift exchange was held in charge of Mrs. Francis Harris. Following the dinner a brief business meeting was held with Mrs. Irvin Zumpff president presiding. The group voted to adopt the name "Bounty of Glades" for the Flower Show to be held in the spring; to give $10.50 towards the slat house at the TB Hospital in Lantana; to sponsor the Xmas lighting contest and to furnish Xmas favors for the Belle Glade Hospital.

Mrs. Victor Mulberg and Mrs. Herbert Beck were appointed to make favors and Mrs. Richard Hodges was appointed as chairman of the hostess committee, for the District 10 horticultural workshop on January 5.

"New members voted into the club were Mrs. Warren Baganz and Mrs. Myron Ludlow. Mrs. Herbert Beck, chairman of the judges for the days contest, gave a brief outline of points to be considered in judging the entries.

The contest on Christmas table arrangements was won by: 1st, Mrs. Ivan Van Horn, 2nd, Mrs. Herbert Beck, 3rd, Mrs. Lonnie Warren. The poinsettia specimen contest resulted as follows: 1st, Mrs. Ivan Van Horn, 2nd, Mrs. D. C. DeHaven, 3rd Mrs. Irvin Zumpff.

Colored slides of arrangements and exhibits of the State Federation of Garden Club Flower Show at Orlando were shown and also landscaping designs and plants, by Mrs. an.

Those present were Mrs. Chester A. Zumpff, guest and members, Mrs. C. J. Aspey, Mrs. Donald Aspey, Mrs. Charles Beck, Mrs. J. F. Browne, Mrs. Marian Chapman, Mrs. D. C. DeHaven, Mrs. Frank Friend, Mrs. Clara Gladman, Mrs. J. L. Halbrook, Mrs. Carl Hayes, Mrs. F. E. Hollingsworth, Mrs. C. R. Hooker, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Victor Mulberg, Mrs. H. L. Royce, Mrs. J. L. Scott, Mrs. Roy Schrontz and Mrs. Lonnie Warren.

Members playing on the Joyce's football team against Lexington and their wives or friends, were entertained at a steak dinner at a regular meeting of the Joyce's held at the Belle Glade Country Club last Thursday night.

John Kinlaw, chairman, announced that the Joyce's are sponsoring the Community Christmas Tree which will be held in the Municipal Park on Dec. 23. The program will include singing of Christmas Carols and a Christmas Story, with Mrs. J. Leighton Scott as narrator. Santa Claus will be on the scene for the benefit of the loved-ones is up-to-date.

Actually, success in having all Christmas gifts and greeting cards delivered on time is largely a matter of advance planning and preparation which should be done this week.

Postmaster Farnall pointed out. He urges that you take the following steps at once: Get out your Christmas card list and carefully check through it.

Make sure that each address includes the full name, street and number, city, zone and state. Then, pay a visit to the Post Office, stock up on stamps (use three cent stamps on Christmas cards for first class mail service) and ask any mailing regulations.

You can do this in a leisurely way if you will come to the Post Office before 10:30 A. M. or between 1:30 and 3:30 P. M. thus missing the rush hour.

On your way home pick up a supply of heavy wrapping paper, sturdy empty cartons, strong cord and kraft paper of adhesive tape. A modest investment in these necessities will pay big dividends in safe delivery of your cherished Christmas gifts.

After your gift wrapping and packing is complete, plan your mailing so that those for the most distant points go first. Try to get all long-distance mailings into the Post Office before December 8th and those for nearby points should be mailed by December 10th. You'll be glad you did.

Fire Chief Warns About Inflammable Lillion Synthetic

A warning has been issued this week by Fire Chief L. E. E. concerning an inflammable dress material called "Lillion" which has been on sale in department stores in this county.

A check of local merchants handling dress material and "Lillion-made" dresses disclosed the fact that no one was handling the material in Belle Glade.

Assistant Chief Cecil Bair said most of the merchants are aware of the character of this material and are looking out for it.

He said tests run by other fire departments showed the material, when burned, leaves a hot, tarry substance which sticks to the flesh and causes burns.

Cities from Miami to Ft. Pierce have banned or are trying to ban the sale of the fabric pending further tests.

The material, which is a synthetic, burns faster than linen, cotton or rayon. Standing too close to a heater or cigarette might cause the material to burn.

The manufacturers of this material supposedly have asserted that the material meets specifications of the textile industry and government regulations.

Chief Will has asked all people who will be buying cloth in the near future to double check to make sure they have not purchased any Lillion products until the material has been tested further.

Postmaster Farnall Urges "Mail Early for Christmas" Campaign

"It's time to start those Christmas mailings!" Postmaster George Farnall warned today, launching his 1955 "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign. "On the calendar it's a month away but here in the Post Office it's Christmas today—and every day until December 28th," he said. Extra mail carriers and office help have been secured, the delivery trucks serviced, Post Office inboxes filled and in fact everything is ready for the mammoth flood of Christmas mail that is expected to smash all records.

The Post Office has already dispatched a tremendous quantity of gift packages headed for members of the Armed Forces overseas. Christmas cards for service personnel can still be delivered in time if they are sent by mail before December 1st. In the U. S. A., smart people are now mailing gifts to friends and relatives living in other states.

Postmaster Farnall especially calls on business firms to help in his effort to deliver every package and Christmas card before December 25th. "The lady of the house," he emphasized, is really in charge of each family's Christmas mailing program. She selects the Christmas cards, buys most of the gifts and sees to it that the mailing list of friends and children.

Other guests were Dale Ellis, chairman of the Everglades Fair Assn. and Mrs. Rosa Nash. Mrs. Ellis spoke on the overall picture of the Fair. Mrs. Nash talked on a plan outlined on a new look for the Harvest Queen and also a new look for the agricultural entries. The Joyce's executive board were asked to attend the next meeting of the Fair committee.

At their meeting last week that Joyce's were entertained by the majorettes and was also the regular joint dinner meeting with the Jay-Cetts.

A Dutch auction was held on a cake donated by the mother of one of the majorettes, bringing $27.25, and the organization added the extra amount to make $50 for the expense fund for the majorettes.

The group voted to purchase a $10 bond for the benefit of the Palm Beach County TB Assn.

Legion Post 20 Will Hold Annual Christmas Meeting At Legion Hall December 20th

The meeting and pot-luck supper is open to all Legionnaires, their guests and the Auxiliary.

Each member must bring a $1 gift for exchange suitable for either man or woman. A drawing for the nine piece chrome cookware set will be held during this meeting. The winner will be notified later.

Corsage Making Shown Fifth Grade Gardeners

The Junior Garden Club of the fifth grade of the Belle Glade Elementary School held a meeting in the auditorium Thursday afternoon, with approximately forty in attendance.

Christmas corsages of dried material were made. Mrs. Herbert Able assisted the chairman, Mrs. Luther Jones. This club is sponsored by the Garden Study Club. An attractive arrangement of Bougainvillea was displayed by Sherry Tubb. Sherry Du Pont will furnish the arrangement at the next meeting.

Three cans of soil were planted with snapdragon, candytuft and carnation seeds. These were placed in each of the three fifth grade rooms for cars and watching. A pamphlet on the culture of seedlings was distributed to each member. Also a copy of Elizabeth Caledine's "A Child's Guide to Subtropical Gardening" was presented to each fifth grade room library for use by the members.

SURVEY SHOWS

white resident duplexes and two resident duplexes and a hotel with 28 units for white residents or tourists are filled as soon as they are completed this year. Still the gap remains: Millions in Progress.

In the Glades there is a $20 million dollar flood control program underway. The agriculture business is a $90 million dollar a year business. 30,000 carloads of oranges leave here annually in addition to sugar, beef, dairy, and fish exports.

The people who operate and work these businesses—excluding the migrant problem—need homes here if they are to do their business here. We have seen churches built to take care of the Glades spiritual needs. There were four white and two negro churches built here this year. Local people are providing their specific business needs, but as yet no one has undertaken a housing project of any proportion big enough to stem the tide of demand.

Local Situation
Everyone knows the problem at hand. Prominent citizens have voiced their opinions and suggested solutions.
Belle Glade Mayor Walter Ashley said, "We haven't had an over supply of housing in the history of the city. Now we are faced with an acute shortage. I would like to see local interests begin to build at least 150 additional homes to help meet the crisis at the present time."

Hart J. Bratley, president of Everglades Savings and Loan Assn., had this to say: "We are having calls for money for medium priced homes. There aren't enough of them in town. The demand is for people who live here. We're not crying for tourists. These are permanent people who come here to stay."

Public service to Glades citizens are always "on the grow." Additional rooms are being added to the Belle Glade High at South Bay are installed in time for the work by U. S. engineers on the Lake Harbor pump installation on the dike in background and for the deepening and widening of the North New River through South Bay. (Second from bottom) South Bay Growers is adding a precolored of some fifteen car daily capacity to their South Bay packing house unit. (Bottom) Southern Bell is adding room for installation of additional phones to the communities of Belle Glade, South Bay and Lake Harbor.

here. They're the kind who need homes, and they are the ones we want to have homes. We have little houses, but they're not the kind people should have to live in."

Another facet of the problem was expressed by E. M. Lively, president of the Florida National Bank at Belle Glade: "Produce brokers, white collar workers, teachers and related groups need homes here. If we had 150-200 homes built, it would alleviate the situation greatly."

The cry comes up from the labor stand-point, too. Harold Rabin of Rabin and Company, local needs. "There is a tremendous need for labor housing. There are not enough medium priced houses or apartments, either, for the white collar worker. We could stand 1,000 houses for people who earn $50-75 per week. We have to house about 5,000 people, and figuring three to a house 1,500 labor houses would not be too many."

George Wedgworth echoed these remarks by saying: "With respect to housing for migrant labor—our biggest problem—there isn't enough housing during the height of the season. Labor camps are filling with semi-permanent residents. The Housing Authority was established to take care of migratory persons, but now takes care of semi-permanent residents. We can get people to work for us if we can find them a place to stay."

Pahokee Problem Great
In Pahokee where packing houses and agriculture forms the well-known "north end" the need is just as serious. Rupert Mock of the Bank of Pahokee says, "There is a definite need for housing. It's almost impossible for a family to get a house here."

Pahokee's mayor, Lewis Fritzel brings a ray of hope to the picture with some information on how Pahokee is moving to solve the problem. "We do have a shortage of housing for both negroes and whites," he said. "Recently the Pahokee council took action to revive the low cost federal housing project which should give us 115 dwellings in the near future. This may solve the immediate labor housing problem. We do have some V. A. projects finished and under construction."

Pro Vandergrift, Sr., speaks about the Pahokee-Canal Point problem said, "We need housing worse than any community I know of—both laborers' and residents' homes. Buyers, too, have to live away from here and that's why there's no buying power on the lake because they can't find housing. We don't have half enough. We could use 400 to 500 homes for migrant laborers. We need housing period."

Problem Hurts Glades
This lack of adequate housing hurts not one community, but it hurts all of them. It affects those people who work here and have homes elsewhere. It has been feared that workers would move here—thus raising our local income—if houses were to be found.

C. F. DeBellevue, project manager of Belcher Oil Company here, said, "We are now employing 125 people in steady work; 50% of whom would want housing here if it were available. About 40 men are driving back and forth to work from as far as Miami. There is no housing to be found where a man can move his family. The problem is very acute, indeed, in the summertime, to find decent housing."

He explained that local projects would provide employment here which would last through September 1957.
Charles M. Wessendorf, area engineer for Central & South Florida Flood Control District said, "We certainly have a trouble and anticipate considerable trouble in the future to find housing. That's been one of our main problems in this immediate vicinity."

South Bay Stymied
South Bay, small now and growing constantly, is stymied for growth. Ray Sullivan, mayor of South Bay said, "Our needs are similar to that of Belle Glade and Pahokee. If we can get the housing there are people who will move into them. How can we expect to grow if we can't get additional homes?"

Sullivan explained that young married people were forced to find homes elsewhere rather than stay in South Bay and live in inadequate homes.
Hiram Weeks of South Bay Growers said, "Adequate housing is important to the success of our farmers upon whom our local economy depends; however, I doubt that public housing is the most satisfactory approach to securing our farm labor problem.

W. J. Rawls has built a three unit apartment building on the Mound, just west of the city limits.

To the south at Okeelanta housing seems less of a problem. Barracks and apartments apparently are taking care of cane workers at present.

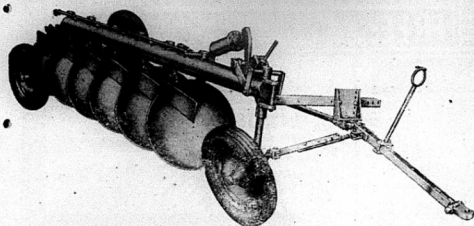

Bishop Wilson, a Clewiston contractor, said, "I keep just one house ahead of them." People buy homes as fast as he can build them.

William H. Lanier, president of the Clewiston Chamber of Commerce, said, "Although we don't have much of a migrant they did not look too long."

problem, there is a very definite need for medium and low priced houses for renting or selling.

Outlook
The estimates of needed housing to solve the problem have varied from man to man; however, the sentiment, reasoning and deduction has remained the same. This problem affects nearly 40,000 people in the Lake Okechobee area including the 10,000 migrants who work here the greater part of the year.

These people working in jobs varying from executive positions to field hands are looking to the Glades "melting pot" for homes. It would be well if they did not look too long.

City Will Oil And Sand Hillsborough Right Of Way Here

The Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District governing board authorized the FCD to enter into an agreement with Belle Glade, this week to maintain the right of way along the Hillsborough canal through the city limits.

The action was taken after FCD manager B. Arnold said that Belle Glade had offered to do the work for $3,000.

After several months of discussion, Commissioner J. Marvin Unwin, working with the FCD, was able to extract the decision.

The agreement will be worked out with the city manager to oil and sand West Lake Road and Palm Beach Road from Chosen bridge to the east city limits.

It was announced at the city commission meeting Wednesday that as soon as funds are made available the Hillsborough canal would be widened. Until the city learns how wide the canal will be, a permanent road cannot be laid.

INSPECTION GROUP

From the trip will come information to be used by Col. James Pope in presenting to the Bureau of the Budget and to Congress the financial request for funds.

Local farmers were able to see that the boys from Jacksonville, Atlanta and Washington did not wear "horns," and they in turn saw farmers not acted with the "gimmies" or "subservient to the 'support' idea of farming.

Friendship and an exchange of ideas on what is needed and what may be available to accomplish an economic improvement to this area and all of South Florida was the keynote of the meeting.

The Glades' best advertisements are its citizens and its products were seen on the lunch table—roast beef, mixed salad, sweet corn and other vegetables.

Farnall Sees Record Mail Volume During Christmas Mailing
Checking the progress of his "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign, Postmaster Grange J. Farnall, said today that the 1955 pre-holiday season will be a real record breaker as he noted the mounting flow of Christmas cards and gift packages.

Last year at the beginning of the second week before Christmas we handled 5,280 pieces of mail, he said. This year (13) we handled 6,400," he said.

Farnall said over 1,000 parcels were handled in the two day period of record which is a definite increase over last year.

The Postmaster went on to say that the mounting volume of Christmas mail makes it doubly important for everyone to help on the "Mail Early for Christmas" program. He warned that packages mailed to out-of-state points after this week may not be delivered in time for Christmas.

He said that the flow of parcels goes to definitely behind schedule and suggested that all out-of-state parcels should be mailed as air parcel post.

By LEO JAMES, Reporter
The reporter would like to announce that this will be the last chapter report until school starts again in January.

The F. F. A. in the past few years, has improved greatly. We have improved our farm, our shop, and our equipment. We owe these improvements to our chapter adviser, Professor Sam Lovell.

Prof. Lovell hasn't been here for a while, but he himself, though, he has had the help of the farmers, merchants, and many other people in this community.

The Belle Glade Chapter of the Future Farmers of America wish a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year to Prof. Lovell and to everyone in our city.

Needs For Workers Balance As Prices Decrease In State

A spot check of 11 state areas of vegetable harvesting activities has disclosed that available laborers are in balance with crops to be harvested or pre-harvest activity.

In most areas as well as local bean harvest activity has declined considerably due to low prices.

Lee L. Smith, manager of the Belle Glade Employment Service was asked about the labor situation here.

"It's not too bad," he said. "As fast as orders are received they are being referred to growers."

Smith said there was a demand for day workers in most vegetable harvesting.

For the most part housing is available for laborers either in barracks or scattered rooms in and around harvesting areas.

Miami reports preharvest activities on all crops as heavy. Harvest of pole beans and tomatoes has increased.

Fl. Lauderdale crops are generally in excellent condition. Unsatisfactory market prices are responsible for some mature vegetables not being harvested.

In the Central Ridge Area celery harvesting is almost complete. Other vegetables and leaf crops are moving in volume, and laborers are available for necessary work.

A need for harvest labor in the Ft. Myers section is down due to low prices for vegetables. Considerable acreage of tomatoes are being planted in lower Collier county where soil moisture has been adequate.

In the Bradenton-Sarasota section labor and demand are in balance and crops are in good condition. Pole beans, tomatoes, radishes and leaf crops are being harvested.

"Acceptance of the New Power Style Chryslers and Imperials has set an all time sales record in many areas in the United States," Mr. Braden said. ## "Best car manufactured in America today"

That's what Floyd Clymer, famous automobile authority, said about Chrysler in Popular Mechanics (October)

"I have tested many fine automobiles over all kinds of terrain," writes Mr. Clymer, "and in my judgment Chrysler is the best automobile manufactured in America today."

When you compare this Chrysler with the other two major cars in its price class, you will be in for an electrifying awakening. Because this is power driving as it was meant to be.

You push the "D" on the Pushbutton PowerFilte Drive and a mighty airplane-type engine whisks you away in an instant. There's a new, wonderfully easy feel-of-the-road with full-time PowerFilte Steering... a straight, sure, velvety sense of safety in the stops you get with PowerSmooth Brakes... a world of authority in the tremendous response of Chrysler's exclusive airplane-type Fire-Power V-8 engine!

Just one look at this car tells you the power's there. You see it in the flowing "PowerStyle" lines... in the flight-sweep look of its rear deck and fenders. Let us put you behind the wheel of the "PowerStyle" Chrysler for just 15 minutes this week. Compare its all-around performance with its two price competitors. Then you'll know why "the best car manufactured in America" is your best buy! Come in or call us today!

CONDUCT OF JURORS
Many Floridians are called each year to serve as jurors in many State and Federal courts. Very few of these violate their oath. But sometimes mistakes may occur. Such errors may come from his misunderstanding of his work or from facts. For the jury judge of the facts in a lawsuit.

The juror must not only avoid wrong. He must not even seem to do wrong. By observing the following suggestions he may be safe.

1. Keep aloof from everybody (except other jurors) in any way connected with the case. Do not mingle with the lawyers, witnesses, parties, nor the judge, even though nobody talks about the trial.
2. During the trial, do not talk about the case nor let others do so in your presence. If someone keeps on doing so after you tell him not to, you must not listen. Report the fact to the judge at once.
3. Do not deliberate on the case until you have the evidence from both sides and the lawyers' arguments, and the court's charge. Mention the case only in the jury room when all other jurors are there.
4. Do not become an amateur detective. All admissible evidence will be brought before you. Do not look for facts you think have been left out. Do not guess at them.
5. Listen to the evidence as it is given. Your duty is to consider all evidence in the light of the instructions given you by the judge as to the law.
6. Do not guess what the judge thinks of the facts. You are the judge of the facts. His rulings on evidence do not reflect his opinions on any question of fact.
7. Do not talk about your own experiences in similar situations.
8. Do not take or give favors to any one interested in the trial. To do so will raise doubts, and may even cause serious charges to be made.
9. When in doubt, ask the judge. If you do not know about your rights or duties as a juror, ask only the judge for information.

HAVE YOU MADE A WILL?
Ella Smith, whose first husband was lost during the war, married John Jones. At the time of the marriage, Ella had a baby son, named Richard, born of her first marriage. Over the years, John grew to love Richard just as if he were his own. John meant to, but never got around to seeing his family lawyer about adopting Richard as his own. Also, John never got around to having his family lawyer prepare his will, although he and Ella knew the necessity of having a will in order to protect his family should he die.

That which is never expected happens. Ella died of a sudden illness, and John was later killed in an automobile accident.

Of course, John wanted Richard to get all his property, and he thought this would happen automatically. But just the opposite occurred. All John's property went to four distant cousins, whom John had never known, and Richard was left without a thing.

Reason: John had never adopted Richard and further John had never gotten around to having his lawyer prepare a will.

Of course, we never expect the unexpected thing to happen, but just reading the paper proves it does every day.

"Making a will is one of the most important acts in your lifetime. By your will you determine the disposition of your entire life's work and the welfare and future of your loved ones."

Belle Glade Bucket Brigade Wins First Three Cage Battles

By JACK MCASKILL
The Belle Glade Rams basketball team got off to a flying start last Friday night, walloping St. Ann's 74 to 31 on their home court.

The offensive star of the show was Johnny Thomas who dispelled any doubts that fans might have had as to whether or not he could fill the shoes of his big brother, Bobby. Thomas, Johnny pumped in 21 points, making good on 9 out of 16 field goal tries and picking up six points from the charity stripe.

Kenny Norris and J. P. Jones performed well on defense, picking up 8 rebounds each. Jones hit for 12 points, while Norris was gathering 11.

Billy Jackson, J. C. Wornack, Wayne Bair played some head-up ball on both defense and offense and contributed substantially to the cause.

Coch Queltette cleared his bench of 13 players in a futile effort to keep down the score. The "B" team took a nip and tuck affair from the St. Ann's Bees 32 to 30. Mike Challinor, Terrell Williams and Charles Shoefeld were the big gym. From the floor Norris sank 13 field goal tries out of 17 for an 82-34 victory over the frog-throw line Kenny poured in 7 of 9. To cap off a near-perfect performance, he teamed in rebounding with 5.

Johnny Thomas, leading scorer in the first two games, collected 8 points in the one quarter he played. J. P. Jones, who also saw limited action, also hit for 8 points.

J. C. Wornack and Billy Jackson played excellent floor games on both offense and defense.

The score might have been even more lopsided had not Coach Queltette used his entire squad of 12 men. Numerous fouls on both teams also held the scoring down.

Bees Win
In a rough and tumble affair the Belle Glade "B" team came from behind in the last quarter to trounce the Pahokee Bees 24 to 18.

Mike Challinor was high scorer with 16 points and led the defense. J. C. Wornack and Larry Harris, Jeff Thomas and Howard Roberts took care of the rest of the scoring and contributed some good defensive play.

Extension Classes For Teachers Study More Phases Of Local Teaching Problems

Committee work has begun for teachers attending the extension classes concerning migrant education problems under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Sutton, Palm Beach County Education, and Dr. Harlan Curtis, professor of education, Florida State University.

Miss Sutton said 23 educators are enrolled at the present time. Reports from various committees have been heard, and work on another committee before their next meeting January 13 and 14.

One group brought out the fact that educators need to know more about the background and life pattern of the children taught.

This was done, Miss Sutton explained, by case studies. A list was devised with items about which teachers should know about home life.

A second committee studied what must a principal know in order to place a child in a school to make him feel welcome.

The third group studied the method of orienting a new child through his school and what a teacher can do to adjust a child to school easily.

It was brought out that these facts work for newcomers as well as migrant children.

The fourth group, still studying, seeks to find how a teacher decides on what level the newcomer belongs.

A steering committee has been formed for the extension classes composed of Clyde Cripe, Pahokee principal; Brooks Henderson, Pahokee assistant principal; Mrs. Katherine Cunningham, also of Pahokee school; Mrs. Ruth Irwin, Ocoee school; Mrs. Lois Ruff, Belle Glade elementary school; and Mrs. Amanda Jerin, Hendry county representative.

Out of these studies, Miss Sutton said, will come two things.

A policy handbook may be drawn which will be applicable to phases of the migrant problem and all schools in the country with regard to the newcomer problem.

Many New Books Are Available At Library

Mrs. Bettie Harris, librarian at the Belle Glade Municipal Library announces a number of new books are available to our community readers. She stated that since so many homes have television, even the more enthusiastic book lovers have dropped their reading.

However there is nothing like settling down with a good book especially some of the these late editions: "Thorn Tree," by White; "Love of Seven Dolls," by Gail; "Enter Sir Roly," by Thirkell; "Edge of the Sea," by Carson; "Bare Feet in the Path," by Keith; "How To Live 365 Days A Year," by Schindler; "Gift From the Sea," by Anne Morrow Lindberg; "My Hospital in the Hills," by Seagrave; "Confessions of Felix Krueff, Confessions Man," by Thomas Mann; "Casti Garra," by Monsorati; "Flying Saucer

Safety Council Stresses Safe Driving Program to Keep Accident Rate Down

If you've had your hand on the bottle keep your foot off the throttle.

That warning was issued the National Safety Council as it opened its annual Christmas safety campaign.

The campaign is aimed at reducing holiday accidents. Special emphasis will be on traffic accidents, which have taken an upward swing this year of about 8 per cent. A contributing factor to this increase is an even greater gain in motor vehicle travel.

Heavier travel and the festive spirit of the Christmas season always adds to the normal winter hazards of bad weather, slippery roads and added hours of darkness, the

Council said

In warning against driving after drinking, the Council said that one-fourth of all fatal traffic accidents involve a drinking driver or pedestrian.

The conviction of the holidays probably increases this percentage.

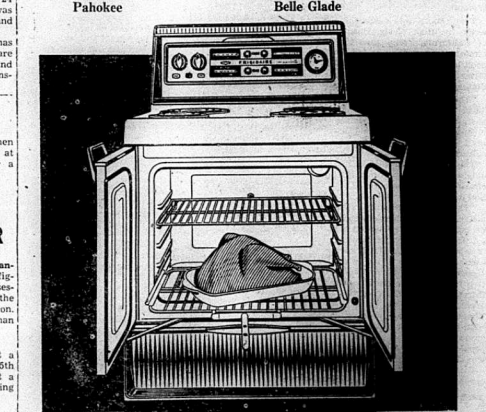

In an effort to reduce holiday accidents to a minimum, city and state officials, city leaders, safety councils and many organizations are joining with the Council in enlisting the cooperation of every motorist and pedestrian.

"If anyone would be his brother's keeper and assume personal responsibility for himself and others, whether walking, many holiday traffic accidents could be prevented," Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Council, said.

Quite a bit of the world's trouble is produced by those who don't produce anything else.
